

FVUC General Manager/CEO Craig Mims Elected Chairman of ECG

Craig Mims, General Manager/CEO of the Fort Valley Utility Commission was recently elected Chairman of Electric Cities of Georgia (ECG). ECG is a Joint Action Agency that provides strategic and technical services to 52 communities that provide energy services. The services include engineering and energy services, training and safety, joint purchasing, professional development training, and economic and community development.

Mims, who has served on the Board for 5 years, has an extensive background and experience in the utility industry. He has served as GM/CEO at the Fort Valley Utility Commission since 2015. Mims said, “ECG has a strong track record of helping communities throughout Georgia, Florida and the US Virgin Islands to obtain goals that may be otherwise difficult to attain. I am looking forward to continuing to work with the other board members and the ECG staff to further enhance the services we provide.”

Mims is serving in his second term on the Board and has previously served as Vice Chairman.
